"If I'm asked, I'll swim back (from Australia) for a horse like this. He just likes to get his head in front and stay there!"

– Robbie Fradd, Jockey.

"Winning the Triple Crown is rare because a horse must be the champion at every distance and few horses have that range, plus they must be tough and consistent to remain at peak form over 7 weeks."

– Robin Bruss, International Bloodstock Authority.

"Everyone loves a horse. More particularly, everyone loves a good horse. And when a good horse comes with a great story, well, you've hit the jackpot. The king has arrived. All he needs is a book of suitable princesses."

– Andrew Bon, award-winning racing journalist.

"He's a Jet Master type horse – the X-factor is there and he's every bit as good as Jet Master and I think I knew the pair of them pretty well. Over 2000m on his day I'd say he's pretty much unbeatable."

– Geoff Woodruff, Trainer.

Louis The King

“Female representatives of both Nearco and Royal Charger in powerful positions.”

Pedigree Insights

Two powerful forces to note in the pedigree of Louis The King, are the multiple strains of Pretty Polly. Besides the fact that he already possesses four lines of Pretty Polly through Northern Dancer, he has two additional lines of other daughters of Sister Sarah. He is in addition a direct female line descendant of Pretty Polly through Anne of Orange. He also has female representatives of both Nearco and Royal Charger in powerful positions. This will act as a powerful balancer for the many strains of Royal Charger that flow from his sons especially, Turn-To as well as the plentiful male strains of Nearco, especially through Nasrullah. The Sister Sarah lines should be powerful in matings with daughters of stallions with powerful Pretty Polly affinities like

Captain Al and Jallad as well as stallions carrying Donatello. Storm Cat has a great affinity with the Roberto line particularly with the Kris S line, and in fact Black Minnaloushe himself has had champion two year olds in Canada (Hollinger), South Africa (Kotchka, Arabian Beat) and England (Black Charmer).

Louis' dam sire (Rich Man's Gold) and Grand dam sire (National Emblem) are both top broodmare sires - Rich Man's Gold broodmare sire of G1 winners Athina (Fort Wood) and Wagner (Tiger Ridge), National Emblem Broodmare sire of G1 winners Legal Eagle (Grey's Inn) & Seventh Plain (Seventh Rock)

Sire Black Minnaloushe

- Dual group 1 winning miler UK
- Sired by breed-shaping stallion Storm Cat
- Dam produced three multiple Group 1 winning sons by different stallions
- Sire of 9 Gr1 winners to date – third behind Silvano and Captain Al
- Sire of 5 Champion Juveniles on 4 continents

Likely affinities

Grey's Inn - Black Minnaloushe has had great success with the Sir Tristram line including gr1 winners Black Mamba and Gold Onyx. The Main Sir Tristram line Stallion in South Africa is Grey's Inn who currently has Legal Eagle as his banner bearer. The promising Forries Waltz is out of a Rich Man's Gold mare, so Grey's Inn looks a cinch to be a huge nick if the opportunities come.

“Right Approach – His daughters seem an absolute natural for Louis the King, in fact I would be inclined to label this ‘a marriage made in heaven’ ”. – Mark Tarry

“I am proud and honoured to be managing Louis The King, South Africa's second only Triple Crown winner, a racehorse of the highest quality whose rare track talent we are confident will be transposed to his offspring. I look forward to being of service to owners and breeders, please feel free to get in touch.” - Kerry Jack
